Call for Proposals

The Planning Committee is currently accepting presentation proposals for the U.S. Department of Education's 21st Annual National Meeting on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse and Violence Prevention. The theme of this year's National Meeting is Harvesting Ideas for Safe and Healthy Campuses: Effective Strategies Built on Research and Practice. The committee is considering proposals primarily for workshops and poster sessions and will consider all proposals that address the following review criteria: consistency with conference theme, theoretical basis or context, replicability and adaptability across settings, and evidence of lessons learned. For both poster and workshop sessions, students are encouraged to submit proposals for consideration.

- Poster (90 minutes): Poster sessions illustrate prevention principles in research and practice. This visual and interactive format focuses on specific programs or recent findings.

Presenters illustrate their findings by displaying charts, photographs, diagrams, and limited text on poster boards, and hold discussions with attendees who circulate among the poster boards.

- Workshop (90 minutes): This is an opportunity for the presenter(s) to describe demonstrated or potentially effective strategies, programs, theories, models, and/or concepts. A workshop also may emphasize skill building by conveying practical, hands-on knowledge of a specific and focused prevention technique or approach.

Monday, May 7, 2007 is the deadline to submit presentation proposals. Submission forms and instructions can be found at www.higheredcenter.org/natl/2007. This year's meeting takes place at the DoubleTree Hotel and Conference Center in Omaha, Nebraska, October 18-21, 2007.

If you plan to submit a proposal, please keep in mind...

We will review no more than two proposals per lead presenter and will not consider proposals where it appears that the focus of the session is primarily on promoting a specific commercial product.
