

U.S. Department of Education's 21st Annual National Meeting on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse and Violence Prevention in Higher Education

Harvesting Ideas for Safe and Healthy Campuses: Effective Strategies Built on Research and Practice

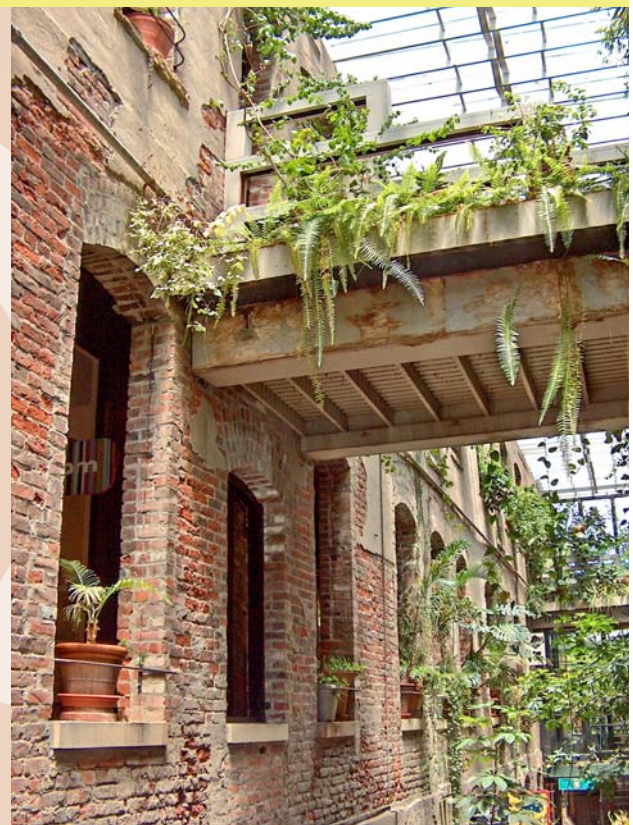

OCTOBER 18-21, 2007 • DOUBLETREE HOTEL & EXECUTIVE MEETING CENTER • OMAHA, NEBRASKA

So you've been to almost every National Meeting...

If that is the case, then this message is for you. Your continued participation in the National Meeting is evidence of your commitment to the field of prevention. As a "veteran attendee" we encourage you to make the most of your National Meeting experience. So while you are here, remember these tips for making the most of this valuable experience.

- Introduce yourself to new attendees.
- Act as a mentor to new professionals in the field by sharing your knowledge, experience, and expertise.
- Look for opportunities to become more involved – apply to be a member of the National Meeting Planning Committee or volunteer to be a session host.
- Renew old friendships and make new ones.
- Bring a supply of business cards with you.
- Attend all of the plenary sessions.
- Complete the evaluations, because what you think is important.

OLD MARKET PASSAGEWAY © 2007 Andrew J. Maghielse

Thank you for your dedication. The U.S. Department of Education commends your leadership in creating and sustaining safe, healthy, and learning-conducive environments at your campuses and in their surrounding communities.

So come to Omaha for the U.S. Department of Education's 21st Annual National Meeting on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse and Violence Prevention in Higher Education. Wear your "veteran attendee" status with pride!

REMINDER: Early Bird Registration for NM07 ends September 17!

For more information, visit the National Meeting Web site: www.higheredcenter.org/natl/2007