Attendees of the National Meeting receive an added benefit – staff from the U.S. Department of Education's Higher Education Center for Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse and Violence Prevention will be available to provide brief individual information and assistance relating to AODV prevention. Topics of assistance may range from problem analysis and program development to strategic planning and evaluation, to searching for Web-based information on a range of topics. These 15-minute assistance sessions are scheduled on Friday, October 19 and Saturday, October 20 between 8:30 -10:00 a.m. in Clark.

To request an appointment for assistance, please send an e-mail to higheredctr@edc.org prior to Tuesday, October 16. In your request, please be sure to include the following:

- the nature of your question. Please be as specific as possible.
- your affiliation (organization, institution) and title
- your availability for each time slot (8:30, 8:50, 9:15, 9:35)
- your e-mail address or preferred method of contact prior to the meeting
- the hotel where you are staying in Omaha (in case we need to contact you after your arrival)

Based on the nature of your request and staff availability, we will assign you to a Center staff member and will notify you of your appointment.
