Tips for an Effective Presentation

Having difficulty putting together your presentation proposal? Here's a helpful hint from the Planning Committee for the U.S. Department of Education's 21st Annual National Meeting on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse and Violence Prevention in Higher Education. We recommend checking out "Making Presentations" – a highlight of the University of Kansas's Web site. This tutorial offers helpful information on how to organize and build an effective workshop and poster presentation. Many National Meeting participants have used this site in the past and found it to be "very helpful" and "quite useful". Go to the following link: <http://www.kumc.edu/SAH/OTEd/jradel/effective>
