Ever wanted to get to the heart of America? Join your colleagues in Omaha, Nebraska to learn new and effective strategies for addressing issues around alcohol and other drug abuse and violence prevention on college campuses and their surrounding communities.

Don't miss the U.S. Department of Education's 21st Annual Meeting on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse and Violence Prevention in Higher Education. It is the premier conference for getting the latest research and program information on addressing issues around alcohol and other drug abuse and violence prevention on college campuses. The conference includes pre-conference institutes, plenary sessions, town hall meetings, workshops, and poster sessions.

With over 200 daily flights including nonstop service from more than 20 major cities across the nation, there is easy access to Omaha, Nebraska. The Omaha Airport is served by American, Continental, Delta, Express Jet, Frontier, Mesa, Midwest, Northwest, Southwest, United, and U.S. Airways airlines all at reasonably low fares.

This year's National Meeting will take place in downtown Omaha at the DoubleTree Hotel & Executive Meeting Center. While we have reached capacity at this hotel, convenient and affordable overflow accommodations are being arranged. Be sure to check the National Meeting Web site at www.higheredcenter.org/natl/2007 for hotel information and links for room reservations.
